Amoskeag Presbyterian Church

An Orthodox Presbyterian Church

Preaching the Christ of Scripture

Pastor

Gregory Edward Reynolds, M. Div.

Amoskeag Presbyterian Church
827 Chestnut Street
Manchester, NH 03104

The Origin of Amoskeag Presbyterian Church

"Amoskeag" was chosen for our name because of its unique regional character. We are committed to building the church here in the Manchester area. Ever since John Eliot, founder of Dartmouth College and "Apostle to the Indians," preached to the Penacook Indians in 1651, Reformation truth took deep root in our soil. Biblical Presbyterianism was once a strong force in the Merrimack Valley. The area was largely settled by immigrants of Scotch-Irish descent who brought their Presbyterian-Calvinistic beliefs with them. Along with the many Congregational churches in the region the faith summarized in The Westminster Confession had a powerful influence. In the nineteenth century Liberalism and Unitarianism weakened the foundations of Trinitarian orthodoxy and opened the floodgates to the secularism of modernity that now dominates our culture.

It is believed that the Indian word "Amoskeag" means "one takes small fish." Jesus said to his disciples, "Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men" (Matthew 4:19). It is our intention to build on the heritage of our forefathers by spreading the gospel to a fallen and lost world. Just as the early settlers caught fish at the Amoskeag Falls so we wish to catch people for Christ in order that they may be nourished on his life-giving Word. We hope you will join us in this noble endeavor. It is a cause with eternal consequences.

Our Mission and Purpose

The Amoskeag Presbyterian Church is a mission work of The Orthodox Presbyterian Church. The Orthodox Presbyterian Church began in 1936 as a continuing witness to the relevance of historic Christianity for modern times.

Our purpose is to glorify God through worship and service. We believe that this is to be done by the power of the risen Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Redeemer of sinners. We believe that the Triune God reveals Himself in the Bible, which is His infallible Word. An excellent summary of what Scripture teaches may be found in our doctrinal standards: The Westminster Confession of Faith, and The Larger and Shorter Catechisms (available on request).

We are a worshipping church. Coming together to worship our Lord on the Lord's Day is the center of our life as God's people.

We are a learning church. It is important to be well taught in Biblical truth and its application to every area of life. The truth matters. That means that we are to be constantly transformed by it. The church is always reforming according to God's Word.

We are an evangelistic church. We take the Great Commission of our Lord very seriously. We support the spread of the gospel at home and throughout the world. We are fishers of people.

We are a family oriented church. We believe in the nurture of each member and family as part of the larger family of Jesus Christ. The community of believers is the vital context of our lives.

We cordially invite you to join us in worshipping and serving the Lord Jesus Christ. We would be happy to answer any questions you may have.
